Our performance this year reflects our deep-rooted focus on quality, agility, and customer-centric thinking.

During the year under review, we recorded robust growth in revenue, driven by increased exports, expansion of our product portfolio, and strengthened relationships with marquee clients. YEAR HIGHLIGHTS 2024–25 - SCALING RESPONSIBLY. SERVING GLOBALLY. SHAPING SUSTAINABLY.

STRENGTHENED GLOBAL PRESENCE

Essen continued to make significant strides in its international journey, with exports contributing to over 60% of the company's total turnover. This year marked a major milestone as we participated in our first-ever international exhibition Ambiente 2024 in Frankfurt, Germany. The event served as a global launchpad for our new product collections and deepened our engagement with sourcing teams, category buyers, and retail chains across Europe and beyond. Our robust compliance with international standards, consistent quality, and reliable supply chain have helped us earn the trust of leading global retailers.

NEW PRODUCT CATEGORIES INTRODUCED

In line with changing lifestyle preferences and global retail trends, we expanded our product portfolio with several high-impact SKUs. Notable introductions include Artificial Hedge Walls, Tulips, and Poinsettias reinforcing our position in the home décor category. In the fitness and lifestyle segment, new designs and formats were added to our yoga mat range, enhancing our product diversity and relevance for modern consumers. These innovations were well received by buyers and contributed to deeper retail shelf presence.

YEARLY HIGHLIGHTS

BHUMI PUJAN FOR CAPACITY EXPANSION

We performed the Bhumi Pujan ceremony for our upcoming state-of-the-art manufacturing unit a major step in our long-term growth strategy. The new facility will significantly expand our production capabilities across extrusion, foaming, and moulding processes. It is designed to support new product verticals, improve operational scale, and meet rising global demand. The expansion aligns with our vision to become a comprehensive solution provider in sustainable lifestyle plastics.

PEOPLE & CULTURE MILESTONES

Our workforce grew to 1100+ employees this year, reflecting not just scale, but also our growing emphasis on building a value-driven and people-centric culture. Over 65% of the workforce comprises women, supported by dedicated night shifts and workplace sensitization programs. We also onboarded specially-abled individuals across functions such as maintenance, assembly, store, and packaging. As part of our ongoing efforts in employee engagement, we continued initiatives like birthday tree plantations, blood donation camps, festiva celebrations, and our annual sports day. We also introduced a diversity & inclusion hiring program, focused on providing equal opportunities to individuals from the LGBTQ+ community. Plastics Market Trends Increasing Demand for Engineering Plastics Due to their properties to favour the market growth of engineering plastics being more robust and durable than regular ones have increased product demand. They provide better thermal and mechanical properties and are lightweight and cost-effective. The rising need for greater polymer solutions for different end-use industries, such as componentry, machinery, and construction, supports the market expansion. The rising demand for metal substitution increasingly leads to broader usage of engineering polymers in various industries. These materials offer more decisive benefits over metal structures in automotive engineering, construction, solar, and water industries.

Plastics Market Growth Factors

Rising Demand from the Packaging Industry to Drive the Consumption of Plastics

Plastics demand is advancing in widespread industries, such as food & beverage, pharma, consumer goods, automotive, and electrical & electronics. The increasing need for packaging from the food & beverage industry drives product consumption globally. Food manufacturers prefer packaging that minimizes food quality degradation and avoids contamination. The ability of plastics to act as a hurdle between food products and the external environment is fuelling the demand. Besides, the ability of polymers to defend against physical stress and offer high durability is increasing their usage in sports goods, fashion wear, toy-making, and polymer clay. Moreover, they are easy to mold and offer flexibility to produce packaging in any size and shape. Their utility is surging in the textile industry due to their high durability, elasticity, and enhanced visual appeal. Moreover, polymers are also rigid, making them suitable for packing automotive and electrical spare parts. Thus, the increasing application across food & beverage, pharma electrical & electronics, textile, automobile, and consumer goods industries is augmenting the plastics market growth.

Rising Food & Beverage Industry to Boost Packaging Segment Revenue

The packaging segment will hold the highest plastics market share and grow at the highest CAGR during the industry forecast period. This growth is associated with high product demand from the pharma, food & beverage packaging industry. The increasing use in manufacturing construction products, such as films for windows, floor covering, and pipes and fittings, is boosting product adoption in the infrastructure & construction industry.

Similarly, the rapidly growing consumer goods/lifestyle and automotive & transportation end-use industries are expected to aid the market in the assessment period. The rising adoption of polymers in the automobile industry to increase vehicle efficiency and the vehicle components' life is responsible for the growth in the market. These polymers are easily moldable, flexible, and highly durable, which makes them the most favored material for manufacturing numerous products such as housewares, iceboxes, toys, packaging materials, and containers.

The increasing utilization of polymers in the healthcare sector can be credited to their property of guarding against contaminants by acting as a hurdle. Healthcare products, such as bandage strips, gloves, blood bags, syringes, and prosthetics, are manufactured using several polymers. The electrical & electronics industry produces light fittings, household appliances, and switches due to their insulating properties.

Rise in the Demand for Electric Vehicles to Drive the Plastics Market

The hike in the price of fossil-based fuels such as petroleum and diesel has created a demand for alternative energy sources in the automotive industry. Therefore, automotive manufacturers have come up with electric energy-based vehicles that deliver nearly the same output as traditional vehicles. These EVs are capable of providing great efficiency owing to the utilization of advanced plastic materials and high-power electric motors. The consumption of plastics makes the vehicle lighter, faster, and energy efficient. On the other side, the emerging trend of EVs resolves the greenhouse gas and additional toxic gas emissions in nature. Therefore, the governments of different countries are providing subsidies for hybrid electric vehicles (HEVs) and EV holders. These factors lead to an escalating consumption of plastics in the automotive industry.

Asia Pacific is estimated to hold the largest market share, accounting for USD 278.15 billion in 2023. China is anticipated to remain the leading country in the region due to the abundant availability of raw materials at low rates. This is further minimizing the hurdles involved in plastics production. The growth in Asia Pacific is also attributed to the strong growth in the packaging and construction industries. Additionally, rising demand from the consumer goods industry for manufacturing toys, textiles, and sports goods is expected to drive the market in the region.

In North America, the U.S. held the largest market share, backed by increasing product demand from the electrical & electronics, healthcare & pharmaceuticals, and packaging industries. Concerns over plastics pollution and the development of recyclable technologies have increased the adoption of recycled plastics in the region.

Europe is anticipated to have substantial growth in this market, owing to the rising demand from the automotive sector in the region. Additionally, properties, including excellent heat resistance, corrosion inhibition, electric insulation, and low density, support the adoption of polymers in Europe.

The key factor influencing the growth in the Middle East & Africa will be the growing demand from the textile and packaging industries. The surging demand for lightweight packaging and the use of polymers over metal and glass are set to boost the regional market. Furthermore, Latin America is projected to grow due to rising urbanization and the growing number of companies specializing in industrial packaging solutions.

Export-led growth and diversification: ESFL has steadily diversified its customer base—reduced reliance on IKEA (from ~95% in FY20 to ~34% in FY24) and broadened its client portfolio to include Decolin Inc., Shurtape Technologies, and others. This strategic diversification underpins both growth and margin resilience. Cash accruals, which stood at Rs. 25 crore in FY25 and projected to grow to Rs.26 – 28 crore over FY27–28, enabling self-funded growth and stability.

Strong capital structure: The company maintains a robust balance sheet with low debt and healthy liquidity, supported by IPO proceeds and consistent operating performance. With negligible reliance on external borrowings, debt coverage remains comfortable, positioning the company to pursue strategic investments without compromising financial flexibility.

Raw material and forex trends: Margin performance will remain sensitive to volatility in crude-related inputs (like EVA, LDPE, PP) and currency fluctuations. While partial hedging through forwards provides some mitigation, the Company must continue efficient RM sourcing, formulation optimization, and dynamic pricing to manage profitability.

Key growth drivers ahead:

Premiumization & innovation: Launch of eco-friendly product lines (e.g., recyclable, low-VOC films), exploration of new textures, and shopper-centric design enhancements will support premium pricing and enhance customer engagement.

Category & regional expansion: The push into adjacent categories (e.g., artificial plants/flowers, outdoor & utility products) and deeper penetration in developed markets will offer incremental traction.

Operational excellence: Focused on productivity, automation, and working-capital efficiency to sustain cost discipline and margin improvement.

Overall, Essen is well-positioned to capitalize on evolving consumer preferences and global demand trends—balancing profitable growth, sustainability orientation, and financial prudence to deliver stakeholder value over FY26 and beyond.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members,

ESSEN SPECIALITY FILMS LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the standalone financial statements of ESSEN SPECIALITY FILMS LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2025, and the statement of Profit and Loss and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information ("Standalone Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("The Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Accounting Principles Generally Accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, and profit for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statement section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements for the financial year ended March 31, 2025. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report. We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying Standalone Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters	How the matter was addressed in our audit We have:
Revenue from the sale of goods and sale of service has been recognized when the control of the goods and service is transferred which is generally in accordance with the terms of sales and service contracts. We have identified the recognition of revenue as key audit matter because revenue is a key performance indicator of the Company, and therefore there is an inherent risk that revenue is overstated to meet financial expectations or targets. The company has various customers with different terms of trade which increase the risk of error in the timing of revenue recognition.	Our procedures included the following : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Obtain understanding of and assessing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of the Company's key internal financial controls in relation to revenue recognition. 2. Inspecting customer contracts, on random sample basis to identify the terms and conditions relating to the transfer of control of the products sold and services provided and assessing the Company's timing of revenue recognition. 3. Identified significant terms and deliverables in contract to assess management's conclusion regarding the (i) identification of distinct performance obligation (ii) Allocating the transaction price to the performance obligation in the contract. 4. Comparing on random sample basis revenue transaction recorded before the financial year end with relevant underlying documents including gate outward register and shipping documents to assess whether revenue from sale of goods has been recognized in the appropriate financial period and 5. Circulation of selected balance confirmation to customers on random sample basis and reconciling the differences if any on amounts confirmed by customer and amounts recorded by management.
Quality Claim Obligation Involves critical estimates: This estimated has a high inherent uncertainty as it involves management judgement by making assumption based on past experience. Company is estimating provision of Rs. 11.35 lakhs at 0.94% of total revenue from plastic related items sold.	Principal Audit Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We have obtained representation from the management regarding assumption and estimation of warranty obligation. 2. Performed analytical procedures and test of controls for reasonableness of management estimation. 3. Reviewed the management assumption and estimated efforts on these uncertainties. Our audit process did not identify any change required to management's position on these uncertainties.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis and Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility and Sustainability Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements, or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibility of Management for Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance of the Company in accordance with the accounting principle generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also :

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the over-ride of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(l) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by Management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in: (i) Planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) To evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to be a threat to our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

“Annexure B” to the Independent Auditor’s Report
Referred to in Paragraph 2 under the heading “ Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause
(i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Essen Speciality Films Limited (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2025 in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management and Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (The “ ICAI”) These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

- (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

1 COMPANY INFORMATION

Essen Speciality Films Limited is incorporated since 2002 and Engaged Mainly in the business of Manufacture and Sale of Plastic Sheets, Plastic Artificial Plants or Ports, Etc. having its registered office at Survey No. 192, Plot No. A, Industrial Area, Behind Orchev Pharma, Veraval (Shapar), Rajkot, Gujarat, India, 360024

2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a Basis of Preparation

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India ('Indian GAAP') to comply with the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013, as applicable. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on accrual basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value.

b Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management of the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to the contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of income and expense during the period. Examples of such estimates include provisions for doubtful receivables, provision for income taxes, the useful lives of depreciable Property, Plant and Equipment and provision for impairment. Future results could differ due to changes in these estimates and the difference between the actual result and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known / materialise.

c Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation / amortisation. Costs include all expenses incurred to bring the asset to its present location and condition.

d Depreciation and amortization

In respect of Property, Plant and Equipment (other than freehold land and capital work-in-progress) acquired during the period, depreciation/amortisation is charged on a Straight Line Basis so as to write-off the cost of the assets over the useful lives. As per the company's accounting policy, depreciation on Plant & Machinery is calculated using the double shift method, which accounts for accelerated Depreciation due to extended use of the asset, typically resulting from a second shift of operation. This method allows for a faster depreciation schedule, reflecting the higher consumption of the asset's economic benefits over a shorter period.

The useful life of the Assets has been taken as below ;

Type of Assets	Period
Buildings	30 Years
Plant and Equipment	15 Years
Solar Power Plant	15 Years
Electric Installation and Equipments	10 Years
Furniture and Fixtures	10 Years
Laboratory Equipments	10 Years
Vehicles	8 Years
Office equipment	5 Years
Computers	3 Years

e Impairment of assets

At each balance sheet date, the management reviews the carrying amounts of its assets included in each cash generating unit to determine whether there is any indication that those assets were impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of impairment. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Reversal of impairment loss is recognised as income in the statement of profit and loss.

f Leases

Assets taken on lease by the Company in its capacity as lessee, where the Company has substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance lease. Such a lease is capitalised at the inception of the lease at lower of the fair value or the present value of the minimum lease payments and a liability is recognised for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on the outstanding liability for each year.

Lease arrangements where the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset substantially vest with the lessor, are recognised as operating leases. Lease rentals under operating leases are recognised in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis.

g Investment

Long-term investments and current maturities of long-term investments are stated at cost, less provision for other than temporary diminution in value. Current investments, except for current maturities of long-term investments, comprising investments in mutual funds, government securities and bonds are stated at the lower of cost and fair value.

h Inventories

Raw materials are carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis. Purchased goods-in-transit are carried at cost. Work-in-progress is carried at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Stores and spare parts are carried at lower of cost and net realisable value. Finished goods produced or purchased by the Company are carried at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes direct material and labour cost and a proportion of manufacturing overheads.

The valuation for inventories is as follows;

Classification	Valuation Policy
Finished Goods	At lower of cost or net realizable value.
Raw Material	At lower of cost or net realizable value.
WIP	At Cost
Consumables	At Cost

i Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amount of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents.

j Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when there is a transfer of significant risk and rewards of ownership in goods to the buyer.

Interest income is recognized on time proportion basis taking into account amount outstanding and the applicable interest rates.

Service income is recognized on the basis of completion of service method. Dividend is recorded when the right to receive payment is established. Interest income is recognised on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

k Employee Benefits

Post-employment benefit plans

Contributions to defined contribution retirement benefit schemes are recognised as expense when employees have rendered services entitling them to such benefits.

For defined benefit schemes, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit Method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses are recognised in full in the statement of profit and loss for the period in which they occur. Past service cost is recognised immediately to the extent that the benefits are already vested, or amortised on a straight-line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested.

The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligation as adjusted for unrecognised past service cost, and as reduced by the fair value of scheme assets. Any asset resulting from this calculation is limited to the present value of available refunds and reductions in future contributions to the scheme.

Other employee benefits

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees is recognised during the period when the employee renders the service. These benefits include compensated absences such as paid annual leave, overseas social security contributions and performance incentives.

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related services are recognised as an actuarially determined liability at the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date.

l Borrowing Cost

The entity has followed the policy of capitalizing borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset, as part of the cost of such assets. Other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

The accounting treatment of borrowing costs is in accordance with the Accounting Standard 16 "Borrowing Costs" notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2021.

m Research and Development Expenses

The entity follows the policy of accounting research and development expenditure as under :

Research expenditure is charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred.

Development expenditure incurred on specific projects is recognized as an intangible asset if it meets the recognition criteria laid down under the Accounting Standard AS 26 – Intangible Assets. If such criteria are not met, the development expenditure is charged to revenue in the year of incurrence.

The accounting treatment of research and development costs is in accordance with the applicable accounting standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2021.

n Foreign currency transactions

Income and expense in foreign currencies are converted at exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities other than net investments in non-integral foreign operations are translated at the exchange rate prevailing on the balance sheet date and exchange gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

o Taxation

Current income tax expense comprises taxes on income from operations in India. Income tax payable in India is determined in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Deferred tax expense or benefit is recognised on timing differences being the difference between taxable income and accounting income that originate in one period and is likely to reverse in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Advance taxes and provisions for current income taxes are presented in the balance sheet after off-setting advance tax paid and income tax provision arising in the same tax jurisdiction for relevant tax paying units and where the Company is able to and intends to settle the asset and liability on a net basis.

The Company offsets deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities if it has a legally enforceable right and these relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation laws.

p Government Grants

Government grants are recognized in the financial statements in accordance with the Accounting Standard 12 as follows :

Grants related to revenue are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the related costs are incurred, and are presented either as a separate income or deducted from the related expense.

Grants related to specific fixed assets are either reduced from the cost of such assets or presented as deferred income and recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the useful life of the related asset, on a systematic and rational basis.

Grants received but not yet recognized are shown under liabilities as "Deferred Government Grants" until the recognition conditions are fulfilled.

The accounting treatment is in accordance with the applicable provisions of AS 12.

q Provisions, Contingent liabilities and Contingent assets

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits and compensated absences) are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent liabilities are not recognised in the financial statements. A contingent asset is neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

Reasons for Variances

- (a) Current Ratio: Variance in Current ratio because of more increase in current liability as compared to current asset
- (b) Debt-Equity Ratio: Variance in this ratio due to Increase in borrowings during the year.
- (c) Debt Service Coverage Ratio: Variance in this ratio due to Increase in borrowings during the year.
- (d) Return on Equity Ratio: Declined from 12.47% to 7.90%, driven by an increase in equity base (likely due to bonus issue) and a fall in net profit, leading to lower returns generated on shareholders' funds.
- (e) Inventory Turnover ratio : It is reduced from 4.08 to 3.04, indicating higher inventory holding periods and reduced efficiency in managing stock, which may affect working capital.
- (f) Trade Payable Turnover Ratio: There's a rise in purchase and a drop in accounts payable, leading to a higher ratio by 47.47%
- (g) Net Profit Ratio: It is declined from 9.98% to 6.77%, pointing towards margin erosion possibly due to increased costs or pressure on sales pricing.
- (h) Return on Capital Employed: It is dropped from 14.16% to 10.52%, as capital employed increased while operating profits (EBIT) did not grow proportionately.
- (i) Return on investment: Variance in Return on Investment is due to decrease in investment and increase in its return.

However, it has been observed that the participation by the public non-institutional shareholders/retail shareholders is at a negligible level.

Currently, there are multiple e-voting service providers (ESPs) providing e-voting facility to listed entities in India. This necessitates registration on various ESPs and maintenance of multiple user IDs and passwords by the shareholders.

Demat account holders would be able to cast their vote without having to register again with the ESPs, thereby, not only facilitating seamless authentication but also enhancing ease and convenience of participating in e-voting process.
